

TOP INTERIOR DESIGNERS TO PARTICIPATE IN GEORGETOWN JINGLE

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Regional Designers to Showcase Talents at Holiday Extravaganza Benefiting Area Pediatric Cancer Program

WASHINGTON, DC (July 25, 2007) -- Over 30 of the region's top interior designers will come together for the second-annual Georgetown Jingle, to be held on December 9, 2007, at the Four Seasons Hotel Washington, DC. Using tabletops and holiday trees as their canvases, participating designers will showcase the latest in holiday home design at the event, which benefits the pediatric cancer programs at Georgetown University Hospital/Medstar Health.

The 2007 Georgetown Jingle tabletop designers are:

1. A. Houck Designs, Andrea Houck
2. Andrew Law Interior Design, Andrew Law
3. Annette Hannon Interior Design, Annette Hannon
4. CDM & Associates, Christina DePina
5. Creative Design Solutions, Cindy Sayers
6. David H. Mitchell
7. Frank Babb Randolph
8. Gore Dean, Luis Aranibar

The holiday tree designers will donate all materials and decorations for their displays, each of which will convey a seasonal theme. Each tabletop designer will partner with a showroom at The Washington Design Center to create a tabletop vignette. The designers will donate all materials on the tabletops to the auction.

“Knowing I can make a small contribution to the Georgetown Pediatrics is really what the holiday season is all about,” said Camille Saum, of Camille Saum Interior Design, located in Bethesda, Maryland. “Last year’s event was spectacular and I so enjoyed being a part of it and look forward to participating in it again this year.”

The tabletops and select trees will be on display at The Washington Design Center from November 12 to December 7. The tabletops will move to the Four Seasons Hotel Washington, DC for the December 9th extravaganza. The holiday trees will be on display at the Four Seasons Hotel from November 27 to January 4.

In addition to the dazzling display of tabletops and trees, the event will include a silent auction and raffles; a holiday gift boutique; tastings from DC-metro area restaurants; a children’s workshop sponsored by CVS/pharmacy; and a giving tree “game of chance,” sponsored by Bloomingdale’s.

All proceeds from the Georgetown Jingle 2007 will support Georgetown Hospital’s Pediatric Hematology/Oncology, Blood and Marrow Transplantation Program at the Lombardi Comprehensive Cancer Center. Last year's event, which attracted 500 people, raised $275,000 for the pediatric cancer program.

The Georgetown Jingle will take place on Sunday, December 9, 2007, from 4:00 – 8:00 pm at the Four Seasons Hotel Washington, DC. Tickets to the event are $100 for individuals and $250 for a family package. For inquiries about this event, please visit www.georgetownjingle.com or call JDS Designs at 202-543-8631.

For press inquiries, please contact Tiffani Cailor, Four Seasons Hotel Washington, DC at 202-944-2074.
