SEASONS GREETINGS AT THE FOURTH ANNUAL GEORGETOWN JINGLE

Acclaimed Area Designers, Restaurants and Businesses Come Together to Benefit the Pediatric Cancer Program at Georgetown University Hospital

WASHINGTON, DC (July 17, 2009) – The Four Seasons Hotel Washington, DC, JDS Designs, and The Washington Design Center together with some of the Washington area's most recognized interior designers present the fourth annual Georgetown Jingle at the Four Seasons Hotel in Washington, DC on Sunday, December 13, 2009, from 4-8 p.m. The Georgetown Jingle is a family-friendly holiday event to benefit the Pediatric Hematology, Oncology, Blood and Marrow Transplantation Program and the Childhood Cancer Survivorship Program at Georgetown University Hospital.

Attendees at the Georgetown Jingle will be inspired by festive trees and vignettes decorated by some of the region's most noteworthy design teams including Paul Corrie, David Iatesta, Michael Roberson, and Georgetown design boutique And Beige, plus many more. The trees and vignettes will adorn the newly renovated lobby at the Four Seasons beginning December 3. The must-have holiday decor will be auctioned off to lucky bidders with all proceeds benefitting Georgetown University Hospital's Pediatric Oncology department, led by one of the city's most respected oncologists, Dr. Aziza Shad.

This year's designers and tree or vignette themes include:

Design Co-Chairs: Frank Babb Randolph and Kelley Proxmire

ABOUT FOUR SEASONS HOTEL WASHINGTON, DC

Four Seasons Hotel Washington, DC, Washington's first and only Mobil Five-Star, AAA Five-Diamond hotel, has justly earned its reputation as one of the city's – indeed one of the world's – finest hotels. With a preferred Pennsylvania Avenue address, the 222-room hotel is situated in historic Georgetown. Its restful ambiance is enhanced with not only a warm, friendly and tenured staff but also its extraordinary 2,000 piece art collection. The hotel has just completed a $40 million enhancement and is better than ever! An exciting addition is a new signature restaurant, “BOURBON STEAK”, by celebrated Chef Michael Mina, a two-time James Beard award winning chef. The restaurant is designed by world-renowned architect David Rockwell. The Lobby has been redesigned by Pierre-Yves Rochon and intended to celebrate the intimacy of residential warmth, views of a winter garden and the hotel's celebrated art. The West Wing was renovated and received ten new rooms and suites as well as a 4,000 sq. ft. Royal Suite (the Hotel's largest and most lavish) that will redefine comfort and style in the nation's capital; designed by Pam Anderson from Anderson Miller Ltd. All of this accompanies the hotels $25 million renovation of the East Wing completed in 2005.
